

Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme Fact Sheet

History of the CJRS Scheme

The scheme covered 80% of the employee's regular earnings and NI and pension costs

Flexi furlough was announced which allowed employees to return to work part time

Employers were expected to contribute more and was planned to end on 31st October 2020

Government U-turned and extended CJRS scheme

The chancellor confirmed that the scheme would come to an end on 30th September 2021

What Happens Next?

HMRC CJRS REVIEWS BEGIN

It goes without saying that compliance reviews of all the COVID support schemes are going to be top of HMRC's agenda for the coming years, so being prepared for an enquiry should you be chosen is vital.

CHECK YOU ARE CJRS COMPLIANT

HMRC are encouraging all employers to review their furlough claims. If an error is found and an over claim has been taken an enquiry could take place and the over claim amount will have to be repaid.

SPEAK TO THE EXPERTS

HOW CAN PIERCE HELP?

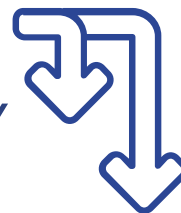

Getting your head around the CJRS rules has been but one complication faced by businesses over the past 18 months, thankfully we have a team full of experts that want to help. If you have received a letter from HMRC regarding your furlough claim, or you just want piece of mind that all your claims have been completed in line with Government guidance, contact us today to get a quote on a full CJRS review.

This Applies to the Following

- ☒ You know mistakes have been made
- ☒ You have previously claimed on the furlough scheme
- ☒ You have received a letter from HMRC regarding your furlough claim

LET'S GET STARTED TODAY

CONTACT OUR FURLOUGH EXPERTS
TODAY...

Tel: 01254 688100
Email: enquiries@pierce.co.uk

Pierce

Business Advisory & Accountancy Group