

Tax Department Opportunities

We are always looking for people to join our fast growing and expanding business. We are actively searching for candidates within our tax team at various levels.

The department advises clients across private and corporate tax planning as well as compliance.

Private Tax Advisor

A private tax advisor will take responsibility for a portfolio of domestic and international HNWIs, their trusts and associate entities as well as assisting with the private client department management. A key element will be to assist Directors with ad hoc personal tax planning projects, offshore structuring, domicile advice and succession planning.

Through this role you will have primary responsibility to deal with all matters relating to the management of the tax advisory projects working alongside the Directors with some compliance oversight (for complex clients).

Corporate Tax Advisor

A corporate tax advisor focuses on advising on corporate and transaction tax within leading regional businesses. We would be looking for someone to support our client base across a multitude of tax advisory matters, including corporation tax, transactional tax and restructuring and other areas, such as:

- Employee incentivisation
- investor reliefs
- International tax
- R&D

- Patent box
- Capital allowances

R & D Specialist
